

contents

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS	viii
INTRODUCTION: Economic Authority and Discursive Form in Nineteenth-Century England	xi
1. Ricardian Economics: Rhetoric and the Form of Science in Early-Nineteenth-Century Political Economy	1
2. Providential Economics: J. R. McCulloch's Nationalist Narratives	31
3. Sentimental Science: Harriet Martineau's Illustrations of Political Economy	53
4. Revaluing Money: Dombey and Son's Moral Critique	78
5. The Economics of Working-Class Masculinity in Mayhew's Letters to the Morning Chronicle	109
6. Rewriting Ricardo/Renewing Smith: The New, Expanded Political Economy of J. S. Mill	134
7. Morals and Mathematics: Critical Revisions of Scientific Economic Theory in the 1860s and 1870s	161
NOTES	189
BIBLIOGRAPHY	211
INDEX	221